HISTORY

Our Dad, Jimmy, has been a restaurateur for 40 years, as both a chef and owner. On June 1st, 2000, our dad chose to bring his love, passion and excitement for the restaurant business here to the Continental House of Pancakes. He instilled a positive culture and environment that revolves around core family values, that has translated into the great service and family-friendly atmosphere you will continually find on display when you visit. Now 19+ years later, he gets to live his dream with the help of his three kids [Demo, Taki and Pana] working by his side.

As a family, we are dedicated to keeping all the traditions and lessons that our Dad has taught us, while also building on them with our own ideas and innovations. We hope to continue serving the great community of South Holland, and all their beloved patrons that make all of this possible.
